

Department Review

- fifty-nine pages of detailed information accurately reflects the School of Nursing
- one-hundred and eighty-one appendix pages
- unify the writing from many contributors to present a coherent voice
- reframe how readers see Nursing
- acknowledge the School's 60th Anniversary
- profile the School of Nursing faculty named in CNA's Top 100
- acknowledge McMaster's unique problem-based learning process

McMaster University's School of Nursing prepares their five year review, with many stakeholders, contributors and reviewers. The result must show the breadth of the School and reframe how people view Nursing. Electra contributes design experience, time-saving production practices, people-friendly project management and attention to detail. Add in a comprehensive understanding of the School—gained creating their new website—and the result is a book that sets a new standard in department reviews.

